Subject: Compliance with the Anti-Corruption Policy in refraining from offering gifts
Attention: Business Partners, and Business Agents of Thanachart Group

Thanachart Group realizes the Government Policy to oppose corruption which causes harmful and obtrusive effects on social and economic development, including uneven playing field. Cooperation between the Government and private sectors “the Private Sector Collective Action Coalition against Corruption (CAC)” was initiated. Therefore, Thanachart Group has its own Anti-Corruption Policy and Measures as the key principle, together with No Gift Policy, for Executives and Employees. The said Anti-Corruption Policy has already been disseminated through the websites of companies under Thanachart Group.

Accordingly, we appreciate kind cooperation from you, including your related entities and persons, as a part of business operation with Thanachart Group, to counter any forms of corruption. Moreover, we would like to request your cooperation to refrain from offering gifts to Thanachart Group’s Executives or Employees, during festive seasons and other occasions. In this regard, we welcome your compliment through collaboratively and continually strengthening our good business relationship.

Also, we would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for your kind cooperation.

Yours sincerely,
Thanachart Capital Public Company Limited
